UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

BRIGADIER GENERAL SCOTT A. DOLD

Brigadier General Scott A. Dold is the Chief of Staff for the Kansas Adjutant General's Department, Topeka, Kansas. In this role, he is the principal advisor to the Adjutant General on all staff matters. He is the day-to-day executive officer responsible for the effective management of the Kansas Army and Air National Guard. In addition, he is responsible for coordination of intra-staff issues with all divisions of the Adjutant General's Department: the Kansas Army and Air National Guard, the Great Plains Joint Regional Training Center, the Kansas State Division of Emergency Management, and the Kansas State Office of Homeland Security.

Prior to this assignment, Brig Gen Dold was the Senior Legal Advisor to the Adjutant General, Commander of the 190th Air Refueling Wing's Mission Support Group and the Director of Staff for the Kansas Air National Guard. He also commanded the state's primary weapons of mass destruction military response unit, the 73rd Civil Support Team (CST). During his time as commander, the 73rd CST successfully responded to real world incidents and was repeatedly recognized as the nation's most proficient team, setting many national records.

Brig Gen Dold joined the United States Marine Corps in 1983, serving as a tank platoon commander, adjutant, headquarters company commander and a logistics officer. He saw service in a variety of assignments and locations across the globe, including Korea, Japan, Thailand, and the Philippines.

After attending law school at the University of Kansas, Brig Gen Dold joined the Air Force and served as a judge advocate. Upon his return to Kansas in 1994, Brig Gen Dold joined the Kansas Air National Guard. He deployed in military and peacekeeping operations in support of operations in Iraq, Bosnia and Kosovo, and was involved with domestic homeland security activities.

Brig Gen Dold is married to Jean Younger of Hays, Kansas. They live in Lawrence, Kansas, and have two daughters, Kennedy and Crosby.
